

CLAVISTER END-USER LICENSE AGREEMENT: Clavister CorePlus

1. Preamble

This legal document is a Clavister End User License Agreement ("EULA") between you (either an individual or a single legal entity) ("Licensee") and Clavister AB ("Clavister"). By using the Software (as defined below) the Licensee agrees to be bound by the terms of this EULA.

If the Licensee does not accept the terms of this EULA the Licensee must promptly terminate all usage of the Software. Should the Licensee have received the Software on a physical media (such as on DVD or CD-ROM), the Licensee must promptly return the media together with any accompanying materials (including any written materials and packaging) to the Licensee's distributor.

2. License Grant

Subject to the terms and conditions contained herein, Clavister hereby grants to the Licensee a non-transferable, nonexclusive, non-sub licensable license to download, install and use:

- as many copies of the software "Clavister CorePlus" as the Licensee has legally acquired corresponding licenses for;
- an unlimited number of copies of the software "Clavister CorePlus", provided that the software is used in demo mode and for evaluation purposes only.

All the above mentioned software are hereinafter referred to as "Software", which term shall also include all thereto related documentation. The Software is further specified in the product specification which is provided together with the Software and any Update or Upgrade (as defined below) hereof.

To "use" the Software means that it is loaded in the temporary memory (i.e. RAM) of a computer or appliance hardware.

For the avoidance of doubt, the Software is licensed, not sold.

3. Ownership and Intellectual Property Rights

Clavister reserves all rights not expressly granted to the Licensee in this EULA. All Software, part thereof and intellectual property rights in relation hereto are owned by Clavister or by such third-party from which Clavister has obtained the right to sub-license the Software, and is protected by national and international intellectual property right laws and treaties such as copyright, patent and trademark laws. The Licensee acquire only the non-exclusive right to use the Software as permitted herein and do not acquire any rights of ownership in the Software or intellectual property rights in relation hereto. The Licensee may not remove or destroy any copyright, patent, trademark, proprietary or confidentiality notices placed upon or contained within the Software.

4. Other Restrictions

Should the license the Licensee bought be a failover unit license, the Licensee agree to only use the failover unit license together with a standard unit license as a part of a high-availability cluster. Any installation or use of a failover unit license as a single master unit license will be deemed material breach of the Agreement. Clavister reserves the right to claim the damages and loss it suffers, including the loss of profit, price difference and other direct or indirect loss resulting from the breach to the extent permitted by law.

The Licensee may not rent, lease, lend or provide commercial hosting services with the Software, nor may the Licensee transfer this EULA and the Licensee's rights granted under this EULA to a third-party without the prior written consent of Clavister.

The Licensee may not, nor are the Licensee permitted to allow anyone else to, attempt to modify, reverse engineering, decompile, translate or disassemble the Software in whole or in part or in any way use the source code (except to the extent applicable laws specifically prohibit such restrictions and as specifically permitted in the respective documentation).

If the Software is Updated or Upgraded, the restrictions set out herein shall apply to both the Updated or Upgraded Software and all earlier versions.

5. Export

The Licensee agrees that the Licensee will not export or re-export the Software (without the appropriate government licenses). If applicable, the Licensee agrees to comply with all applicable international and national laws that apply to the Software.

6. Versioning, Upgrades and Updates

Versions are denoted using a version string formed as a triplet of digits: "A.BC.DE". A Major Release of the Software is represented by the first three digits in the version string. An Upgrade is defined as a modified Major Release of the Software that includes new functionality or contains major design changes.

An Update is represented by the final two digits in the version string, and is defined as a corrected version of a Major Release with essentially retained functionality, performance and capacity.

Subject to you entering into the Software Maintenance Agreement, Clavister shall make available new Upgrades and Updates of the Software, if any. Regardless of which, Clavister will only provide Updates to the current Major Release and the two (2) previous Major Releases.

7. Confidentiality

The Software and all related documentation are trade secrets and proprietary information of Clavister. The Licensee are responsible for the safe-keeping of the Software, for preventing disclosure and shall ensure that the confidentiality set forth above is observed by the Licensee's personnel and consultants, if any.

8. License Fee and Payment

The license granted in section 2. a) in this EULA is subject to the payment of a one-time license fee as agreed between the Licensee and the distributor.

Unless otherwise agreed, the fees shall be paid within thirty (30) days of the invoice date. Clavister and/or the distributor are entitled to charge the Licensee an interest on overdue payment in accordance with the Swedish Interest Act (Sw: räntelagen (1975:635)).

9. Audit Right

Upon request, the Licensee shall, without undue delay, furnish to Clavister such documentation and access to the Licensee's facilities and records as Clavister may reasonably request from time to time in order to verify the Licensee's compliance with this EULA.

10. Warranty

Clavister warrants that for a period of ninety (90) days from the Start Date (as defined below), the Software, if operated as directed, will substantially achieve the functionality described in the product specification.

"Start Date" means the earlier of Software registration on the client web site or ninety (90) days following shipment from Clavister.

Upon expiry of ninety (90) days, Clavister undertakes no warranty of any kind to the Licensee in respect of Software. To receive Clavister's services in connection with the Software maintenance and technical support, the Licensee shall enter into a Software Maintenance Agreement and Technical Support Agreement respectively.

Clavister disclaims all other warranties and conditions, whether express, implied or statutory, including, but not limited to fitness for a particular purpose, lack of viruses or non-infringement with regard to the Software.

Clavister does not warrant that the operation of the Software will be uninterrupted or error-free or that the Software provides a guarantee against intrusions, viruses, Trojan horses, worms, time bombs or other similar harmful or deleterious programming routines from affecting the Licensee's network. Nor does Clavister warrant that all security threats and vulnerabilities will be detected or that the use of the Software will render the Licensee's systems invulnerable to security breaches.

These limitations apply also to all accompanying documents and written materials and, if applicable, any accompanying hardware.

This warranty is void if failure of the Software has resulted from a) the Licensee's unauthorized or improper use of the Software, b) any modification made to the Software by the Licensee or any other third-party than Clavister, c) operator failure, d) malfunction of software that has not been supplied by Clavister, e) problems caused by the installation on an unsupported platform, f) any functionality failure not directly related to the Software, g) problems caused by third-party products, or h) an incident outside Clavister's control.

In case of breach of warranty the Licensee's sole remedy shall be, at Clavister's discretion, either refunding of the price paid for the Software or repair or replacement of the Software or such part thereof that does not meet Clavister's warranty and which is returned to Clavister. The Licensee will receive the remedy elected without charge, however the Licensee are responsible for any expenses the Licensee may incur.

Any replaced or repaired Software will be warranted for either the remainder of the original warranty period or thirty (30) days, whichever is longer.

11. Life Critical Solutions

Clavister deny any use of the Software in and for whatever type of Life-Critical Solution and accept no liability in respect of any actions breaching the referred restriction. The term "Life-Critical Solution" shall mean an application software package or hardware device whose functioning or malfunctioning may result directly or indirectly in physical injury or the loss of human life.

12. Limitation of Liability

CLAVISTER HEREBY EXCLUDES ANY LIABILITY WITH RESPECT TO INDIRECT DAMAGES OR LOSSES, INCLUDING BUT NOT LIMITED TO DAMAGES FOR LOSS OF PROFIT, LOSS OF DATA OR BUSINESS INTERRUPTION RELATED TO THE USE OR IN-

ABILITY TO USE THE SOFTWARE EVEN IF CLAVISTER OR ANY SUPPLIER HAS BEEN INFORMED OF THE POSSIBILITY OF SUCH DAMAGES.

CLAVISTER WILL IN NO EVENT BE LIABLE FOR ANY DIRECT DAMAGES IN EXCESS OF TWENTY PERCENT OF THE AMOUNT CLAVISTER RECEIVED FROM THE LICENSEE FOR A LICENSE TO USE THE SOFTWARE.

13. Term and Termination

Any and all rights granted hereunder shall be limited to five (5) years from the Start Date unless prematurely terminated by either Party on the grounds set out below.

Either party may terminate this EULA with immediate effect if the other party is in material breach of any of its obligations hereunder and such breach is not cured within thirty (30) days after written notice. The Licensee's failure to make any payment when due shall always be regarded as a material breach of agreement.

Upon termination, the Licensee shall cease using the Software and shall at the Licensee's own expenses destroy all copies of the Software and any accompanying documentation in any form. Upon request from Clavister, the Licensee are obliged to present a written assurance document where the Licensee state that the Software is no longer in use and that all above mentioned material has been destroyed.

14. Entire Agreement

Each of the parties to this EULA confirms that this EULA represents the entire understanding and constitutes the whole agreement between the parties relating to the subject matter hereof and supersedes all prior agreements, covenants, arrangements, communications, representations or warranties, whether oral or written, by any officer, agent, employee or representative of either of the parties.

The Swedish Sale of Goods Act shall be explicitly excluded.

15. Disputes and Governing Law

This EULA shall be governed by Swedish law, without regard to its conflict of law provisions.

Any dispute, controversy or claim arising out of or in connection with this EULA shall be finally settled by arbitration in accordance with the Rules for Expedited Arbitration of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce ("the Institute") unless the Institute, taking into account the complexity of the case, the amount in dispute and other circumstances, determines that the Rules of the Arbitration Institute of the Stockholm Chamber of Commerce shall apply.

The arbitration proceedings shall, unless otherwise agreed, be conducted in the English language and shall take place in Stockholm, Sweden.
